Desert Equinox Prize Art Exhibition Submission Form

Entrants may submit more than one artwork. A separate submission form is required for each artwork. All artworks must be installed by the entrant(s) within the city of Broken Hill two (2) days prior to the launch of the exhibition. This exhibition requires that a host site for the artworks displayed is acquired by the exhibitor. A map of the location will be produced by the Broken Hill Art Exchange. It is a requirement of the Desert Equinox Art Prize Exhibition that the entrant(s) named in the submission form, or a nominated representative will (a) be in attendance in Broken Hill for the opening event and the Awards Ceremony, (b) be responsible for the artwork(s) for the duration of the exhibition and (c) remove the artwork(s) from the site within seven (7) days after the closing date of the exhibition. Individual and group submissions are accepted. For group submissions, at least one group representative must fulfil the aforementioned requirements. The Broken Hill Art Exchange is not responsible for any agreements negotiated between the entrant(s) and the site holder or for the sale, maintenance, loss or damage and any expenses incurred by the entrant(s).

Entrant(s) are encouraged to seek sponsorship or additional funding to support the cost of producing and exhibiting artwork/s. Entrant/s accept full responsibility for all costs and expenses including travel and accommodation, site fees and loss/or liabilities and insurances for the installing, construction, exhibiting, maintenance, dismantling and removal of their artwork/s from the site. Only artwork(s) accompanied by a completed BHAЕ submission form will be deemed eligible for the prize and exhibition. The Broken Hill Art Exchange reserves the right to publicise and promote the information provided on the submission form and to use and disseminate images of submitted artworks for publicity and promotional purposes by the entrant(s); and to withdraw any artwork(s) from the prize exhibition at its discretion. No entry fee for viewing of the artworks is permissible.
